

Suffix Game: -LY -LESS -FUL -NESS -MENT

Directions: Toss dice to determine how many spaces forward to go. Read the sentence you land on, adding one of the suffixes above to the underlined word so that it makes sense. The first to the FINISH wins!

START

The big
black puppy
is play.

She glad took the present.

Mrs. Sue
has a help
son.

The sweet
of Bobby led Kim to love
him.

Sudden, old
Mr. Green
did jump up!

HINT: If you land on the green arrow and read both sentences correctly you can move ahead to where it points!

Anna was
child until she did
adopt.

Hank is known as a
faith friend.

Megan
frequent
goes to see
plays.

To her
astonish,
she did win
the contest!

Joe is the most friend
man I have met.

When I feel
rest I go for a walk.

Quick, she hid the present from her dad.

Matt will study the move of the planets.

HINT: If you land on the red arrow you must go back to where it points!

His long for candy led to a cavity.

Mum is glad that Janet is a respect
child.

Shock left her speech.

It is rest to sit with a
novel and
relax.

It can be
stress going to a new city.

I did not find
the shot to be pain.

The sick
kitten was taken to a new vet.

Her blind
keeps my cat from seeing me.

The friend
puppy did
lick the small child.

Dad did
secret plan
an event for Easter.

The kitchen
was spot
when the maid left.

The equip in
the truck
had rust on
it.

Ken's timid
kept him
silent in class.

Sam was faith and
kept his word.

After a long
wait, Pamela final
got the job!

Her mum
thought the back dress
was skimpy.

The gray,
cheer day
had me
feeling sad.

Mr. Owen is
a skill
repairman.

FINISH

