

Ernest Shackleton

Ernest Shackleton is significant because he was an Anglo-Irish explorer who travelled to the Antarctic four times. Ernest was knighted by King Edward VII for all his hard work. He is known for keeping his team together and surviving his journeys, and has also been called 'incredible'.

Date of birth:

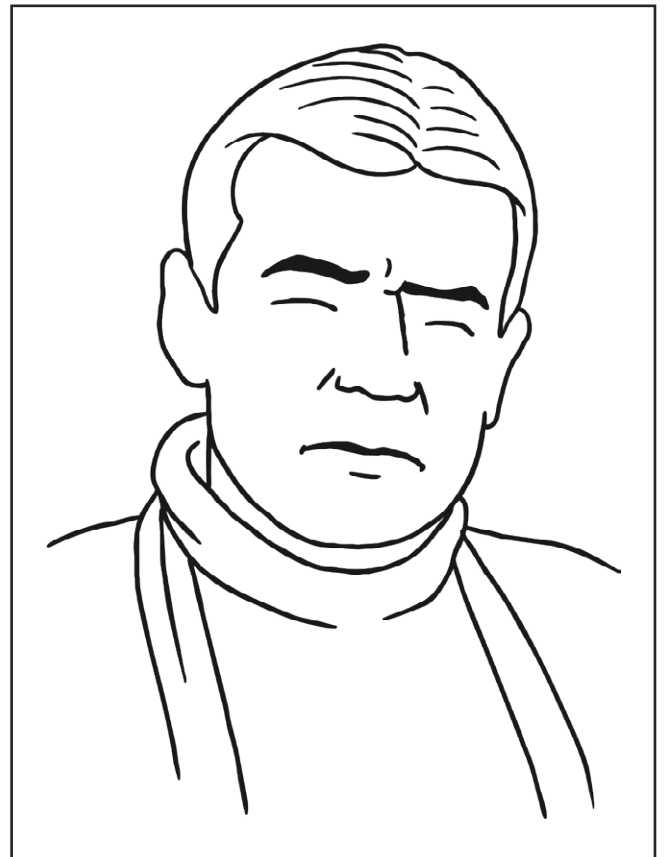

February 15, 1874

Date of death:

January 5, 1922

Interesting Facts

- Ernest Shackleton was born in Ireland, just outside Dublin.
- His father's family was originally from Yorkshire.

A picture of Ernest Shackleton.