

Make sure you have watched the BBC bitesize clip and then fill in the missing words

Nigeria

The Ocean that lies between the continents of North America and Africa is the _____. The country of Nigeria is also known as the _____ because it is _____ times larger than the United Kingdom. The capital city Lagos is a _____ with many people living there. It has busy streets, many big _____ and a large _____ as it is built on the coast of Nigeria. Almost half of the population are _____ and over _____ hundred languages are spoken in the country. There is also a mix of religions with many different churches and _____; in the South most people are _____ but in the North people are mainly _____.

The _____ geography is varied too. Near Cameroon you will find _____ but there are also many lakes that are used for _____ and _____ and in some areas the people live on flat areas on top of _____. There are many rivers and when they spread out near to the coast it is called a _____. In this area many plants and animals live and there are _____. There is a place called Cross River state and it is famous for the many different _____ that live in this habitat.

Use these words to fill the spaces in the paragraph above:

four Atlantic Ocean children Giant of Africa mosques factories port five Christian rainforests physical Muslim drinking mountains fishing delta butterflies mangroves