

RE Week 5	The Parable of the Good Samaritan
Starter	Which parable did we learn about last week? Can you recall some of the story? This week the parable we are focusing on is 'The Parable of the Good Samaritan. Follow the link below to listen to the story: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=osfQg4yKtq8
Parent	You may want to spend some time discussing what the words Samaritan and generosity mean. It may be worthwhile encouraging them to talk about what kindness looks like to them and what they believe to be a generous thing to do for someone.
Activities These become more challenging and you can choose which you do or if you want to try more than one. It is also a way to provide practical opportunities as well as written opportunities.	* Written based	 Written based	 Art and Written based
	Encourage the children to think about who helps them on a day-to-day basis. Ask them to write down a list of people who help them.	Using the list they made in the * activity. Encourage them to think about a time when one of the people in their list helped them and write down how they helped them. They can do this with as many people on their list as they would like.	Choose two characters from the story to compare. Draw them both and write down their similarities and differences around them. Then see if they can say who they believe is the nicest and why.
