

Math activity - 18.1.21

Think carefully about the metre stick you have seen from the video. Looking at objects within your home, can you sort them into the sorting circles below into things that can be measured in metres and things that can be measured in centimetres. If you have a tape measure in your house, you can use this to help you.

metres

centimetres

